MANNER AND MEANS

The manner and means used to accomplish the objectives of the conspiracy included, among others, the following:

I. BACKGROUND OF THE ORGANIZATION

A. JAMES SORGI organized, directed, managed, and operated a drug trafficking organization (hereinafter referred to as the SORGI DTO) that imported marijuana from California into the Northern District of Ohio for distribution. SORGI also organized, managed, and operated a money laundering organization (hereinafter referred to as the SORGI MLO) that laundered the proceeds of the DTO's marijuana sales.

B. JAMES SORGI grew marijuana for the SORGI DTO and also used other marijuana growers in Northern California to grow marijuana for his DTO.

C. JAMES SORGI, on his own, and through Lavivian Wright (named but not indicted herein), directed members of his DTO in California to ship multi-pound quantities of marijuana from California to the Northern District of Ohio via the United States Mail.

D. JAMES SORGI, on his own, and through ROBERT SERINA and STUART PFLAUM, directed members of his DTO in the Northern District of Ohio to receive the packages of multi-pound quantities of marijuana from members of his DTO in California. When the marijuana arrived in Ohio, SORGI directed members of his DTO to collect the marijuana packages and sell the marijuana in the Northern District of Ohio.

E. JAMES SORGI, on his own, and through ROBERT SERINA and STUART PFLAUM, directed members of his DTO in the Northern District of Ohio to collect proceeds from marijuana sales and directed members of the MLO to store marijuana proceeds for him in the Northern District of Ohio.

F. JAMES SORGI, through Lavivian Wright, directed members of his MLO in California and elsewhere to use their bank accounts to funnel marijuana proceeds from Ohio to California. SORGI, on his own, and through ROBERT SERINA, directed members of his MLO in Ohio to make cash deposits of marijuana proceeds into these accounts. SORGI, on his own, and through Lavivian Wright, directed members of his organization in California to withdraw the proceeds from these accounts.

G. JAMES SORGI, through STUART PFLAUM, directed members of his MLO to convert marijuana proceeds from U.S. currency into money orders. JAMES SORGI, through ROBERT SERINA, also directed members of his organization to ship marijuana proceeds in the form of U.S. currency and money orders from the Northern District of Ohio to California.

H. JAMES SORGI, through Lavivian Wright, directed members of his MLO to receive marijuana proceeds in the form of U.S. currency and money orders in California.

I. JAMES SORGI directed members of his MLO and others to carry marijuana proceeds from Ohio to California.

II. MAILING AND DISTRIBUTING MARIJUANA FROM CALIFORNIA TO THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO

A. JAMES SORGI, CRAIG KAVAK, DINO SILVESTRI, M.S. (an individual known to the grand jury, but not indicted herein), and others unknown to the Grand Jury, grew marijuana in California for the SORGI DTO.

B. The SORGI DTO used the United States Mail to ship multi-pound quantities of marijuana from California to the Northern District of Ohio for distribution in Ohio.

C. Lavivian Wright, CRAIG KAVAK, DINO SILVESTRI, and others unknown to the Grand Jury, mailed and assisted in mailing packages containing multi-pound quantities of marijuana to the Northern District of Ohio for the SORGI DTO. Wright also recruited others to mail packages containing multi-pound quantities of marijuana to Ohio.

B. JAMES SORGI, Fred Bagi, DINO SILVESTRI, and Wendi Vicory sent marijuana proceeds from the Northern District of Ohio to members of the SORGI MLO in California via the U.S. Mail.

C. Lavivian Wright received the cash proceeds from marijuana at her residence in California that the other SORGI MLO members sent from Ohio. Wright gave the cash proceeds to SORGI after she received them.

IV. SHIPPING MARIJUANA PROCEEDS AS MONEY ORDERS FROM THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO TO CALIFORNIA

A. JAMES SORGI also directed members of his organization to convert the proceeds from the marijuana sales from cash into money orders. STUART PFLAUM provided the proceeds from the marijuana sales in the form of U.S. currency to Ryan Rodriguez (named but not indicted herein) and instructed him to convert the cash proceeds into money orders. PFLAUM also gave Rodriguez amounts, payee names, and addresses for Rodriguez to use when he purchased the money orders. At PFLAUM's direction, Rodriguez converted the marijuana proceeds into money orders by going to various locations so as not to raise law enforcement suspicion. The money orders were made out in lesser amounts so as not to raise law enforcement suspicion. PFLAUM paid Rodriguez to purchase and mail money orders on behalf of the SORGI MLO.

(an individual known to the grand jury, but not indicted herein), DINO SILVESTRI, JAMES SORGI, Wendi Vicory, Joshua Watkins, and others made cash deposits of marijuana proceeds into their bank accounts and the bank accounts of other members of the SORGI MLO so that SORGI and other members of his MLO could receive the marijuana proceeds in California. At SORGI's direction, these MLO members made deposits into these accounts in amounts less than $10,000 each to avoid detection by law enforcement.

C. ROBERT SERINA directed Fred Bagi, DINO SILVESTRI, Wendi Vicory, and others to deposit marijuana proceeds into funnel accounts to transfer the money to JAMES SORGI in California. SERINA provided the cash proceeds for deposit to Bagi and Vicory.
